YEAR 1 & 2 NSW SCHOOLHOUSE MUSEUM

Dear Parent/Caregivers,

Year 1 & 2 are studying the HSIE History unit 'Present and Past Family Life'. In this unit the students are exploring the differences and similarities between students' daily lives and life during their parents' and grandparents' childhoods. To support this unit we have planned an exciting excursion to the NSW Schoolhouse Museum to make the topic more meaningful for the students. At the museum the students have the opportunity to experience an 1880 school lesson in an authentic 19th century classroom and will participate in a variety of other activities.

Where: NSW Schoolhouse Museum, North Ryde

Date: (Year 2) Thursday 21 November 2019 including Year 2 students from 2/3A
(Year 1) Friday 22 November 2019

Time: 9.00am

Wear: Full School Uniform

Bring: Fruit, recess, lunch and two drinks in disposable containers

Cost: $38.00 payable on Term 4 Account

In order for your child to participate in this learning experience, please complete the permission note below and return it along with Term 4 Account payment to the School Administration Office no later than Friday 15 November 2019.
