

A message from the P&C

Hello families and friends, trust you're warm and well. Can't wait to see the lucky ticket holders this weekend at our Movie Event at Castle Towers. I know my family's looking forward to the new installment of Toy Story, Toy Story 4, and tucking into our popcorn!

We've had a fabulous response to our first Working Bee for 2019. Thank you again for signing up to assist - details below as to the jobs to be completed on the day. Let's hope it's not too cold and wet.....

Now that June has started, so have the fabulous discounts on offer in the Entertainment Book. Using the vouchers in the Book is a great way to check out restaurants you've never been to before - you might uncover a new family favourite. There's also plenty of shopping discounts too. You'll find the link to the website on the last page of our newsletter or on our Facebook page. Why not share it with your family and friends!
